COMMENTS FROM THE TOWN MANAGER'S OFFICE

The tax bills will be mailed out the latter part of next week and the the fun will begin for another year. Quite a few people have expressed their opinion about the late date of the bills. The biggest reason for the delay is the fact that the assessors had to wait for the work done by the Appraisal Associates. A great many people complain about their valuation and the size of their tax bills. The periodic valuation of the town is the only way that the assessors know to correct errors and inequities that are bound to be present in any system. It might be better in the future to use the material furnished by the re-valuation a year later.

The other big reason for the delay in the tax bills is the time it takes to process the material gathered by the re-valuation of the commercial property this year. There is a lot more work to this processing than most people realize.

The question of our State aid reconstruction of Route 33 has come up and the only answer I have is that it is being handled by the state. The application papers were made out in June and sent in to the state for approval. Like so many other projects, special complications have delayed the work. I have been informed by the State Highway Commission that the road will be constructed as soon as the difficulties are taken care of.

PARENTS' DAY PREPARATIONS AT GOULD ACADEMY

Preparations for Parents' Day, Saturday, Oct. 3, are in full swing at Gould Academy and the traditional fall meeting of the parents, faculty and students promises to be a lively one.

The festivities open with a play-day between the Gould coeds and the girls from the Kents Hill School. During the morning these groups will meet in field hockey and tennis competition. At lunch time an outdoor chicken barbecue will receive the attention of the expected crowd of over 1000. In the afternoon the football game between the Gould Huskies and Livermore Falls will hold the center of the stage. After the game, while the students and their younger guests adjourn to the gymnasium for a pre-supper social hour, the parents and faculty will have a chance to compare notes at a tea which is to be held in Gehring Hall. At 8:30 in the evening after a full and active day, all roads will lead to the William Bingham Auditorium where the U. S. Naval Band from Boston will entertain. This part of the program, which has previously been announced to start at 8:00, has been moved to the later time to allow the band to take part in an official ship transfer ceremony at the Boston Naval Base in the afternoon.

Parents' Day arrangements at the school are under the overall supervision of George R. Boush, Head of the Mathematics Department, who expresses the hope that this event will continue to help parents establish a closer working relationship with the school.

A REMINDER TO HUNTERS

As a reminder to hunters, Chief Warden Maynard F. Marsh, Maine Fish and Game Dept., has pointed out a few of the occasionally overlooked or forgotten regulations which hunters should keep in mind before heading into the fields.

The hunter must have in his possession the proper, current hunting license. In addition, waterfowl hunters must have a Federal Duck Stamp which may be purchased at any Post Office. Although woodcock hunting is Federally regulated it is not necessary to have a duck stamp to hunt this species.

The legal shooting hours on migratory birds, including woodcock are from sunrise to sunset. The legal hours on upland game birds are from 1/2 hour before sunrise until sunset. Hours for game animals, except raccoon and skunk, are from 1/2 hour before sunset until 1/2 hour after sunset.

Shotguns used in hunting migratory game birds must not be capable of holding more than three shells in the magazine and chamber combined. Guns used on non-migratory game birds and game animals must not be capable of holding more than five shells; this does not apply to .22 caliber rim fire cartridge firearms or to any auto-loading pistol having a barrel less than 8 inches in length.

Hunters are urged to check the applicable hunting regulations booklet when in doubt about seasons, bag limits, or any other matter of concern.

HUNTING SEASON BEGINS

The Maine Fish and Game Department urges hunters to use extra caution as the fall hunting seasons begin.

Many hunters will be affixed this week to mark the opening of hunting woodcock (Sep. 28), small game (Oct. 1), and waterfowl (Oct. 3), and each one should remember that extra caution is necessary to prevent hunting accidents at this time.

With the excitement of the new season, the still thick vegetation, and the usual early season of heavy hunting pressure, the possibility of a hunting accident is greater than usual.

Hunting is a safe sport, and it can be made even safer if the hunters will remain constantly alert to prevent accidents before they happen.

SCHOOL NEWS

There have been a large number of dogs on the playground of the Crescent Park and Bethel Schools. Dog owners are requested to keep their pets away from our schools during school hours.

We are concerned with the safety of your boys and girls and although these dogs seem friendly, a child could be bitten if a dog is accidentally stepped on.

It is the policy of the superintending School Committee that all bus pupils must ride the bus to which they are assigned and that they must go to and from school on that bus. Bus pupils will not be discharged from the bus at any other destination until permission slips are granted by the child's teacher or the Principal.

Walking pupils are not expected to ride any school bus unless permission is obtained from the Principal. Such permission will be granted only in cases of extreme emergency and must be applied for by the parent.

The usual business meeting was carried out. It was voted to have a sign painted with the name of the church and South Woodstock upon it and have it mounted in front of the Union Church.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses and a social time enjoyed.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Esther Davis the middle of October. At this time plans for the harvest or hunters' supper will be made. The Bible word will be, Reward.
